The late T.B. Bhimasena Row was a useful clerk of the Secretariat and his untimely death has left the family in very bad circumstances

9 It would be a great boon if a small scholarship can be sanctioned for at least one of the boys, (the elder) till he reaches the age of 21 It is purely an act of grace

27/6/11 of the case no one should be a Special Case 27/6/11 but in the Admiralty Branch have satisfied themselves that the Case deserves Commiseration there was Objection even in the principle though Workpeople provided for by the Act, there have been Cases in which the Widow and Children of Officers have been granted pensions Scholarships on account of Special Circumstances (Rs 500 each was in Lewis's case) Submitted to the Viceroy a decision

I respectfully beg to state that 14 I cannot conceive any sound rule or principle under which the application can be entertained This case is only one of hundreds of such cases which occur. In the present case the deceased has left a decent house which brings in a rent of Rs 15/- and an insurance policy in a private company [He was apparently eligible for State insurance but did not insure] Many cases happen in which the situation is decidedly worse - Here is such a thing as to be cruel in a thousand cases by being kind in one Of one of a thousand similar cases is selected haphazard and relieved the feelings in the mind of those concerned in the 999 other cases will be ~~cruel~~ feelings of disappointment And it is clear that ~~it~~ to be able to relieve all cases is hopeless

15 The best course to my mind — and the Kindest in the long run — is to clearly recognize & rigidly work the rule that such relief is beyond the scope and function of Govt We cannot be too careful in eliminating feelings of personal pity or tenderness in dealing with such cases and in realizing that it is not proper to give way to such feelings when the public funds are concerned - In the present case the amount proposed to be given is Rs 15/- a month for about ten years — an amount sufficient to support a decent primary school

I dont think we are prepare to act on this principle regidly & invariably and irrespective of the Status of the deceased officer In a Native State, we have to be some what Considerate and the principle which has guided my action in Such cases is to allow reasonable pecuniary helps to the family of an Offcial who dies in harness prematurely that helps not being in Excess of the pension which the Offcial would have received if he had lived a few years longer In this view, the proposals made in this Case do not seem to be Extravagant or inappropriate or without precedent If we deny it in this Case, reason and Consistency would require us to deny

Basvangudi, Bangalore City, 2nd April 1911
~~9th, January/1911~~

To,

C S Palasundram Iyer Esq , B A , Officiating Secretary to Government Of His Highness the Maharajah of MYSORE

BANGALORE

The humble petition of Sarasvati Bai, widow of the late, T S Bhimasena Rau, ~~ex~~ 2nd grade clerk, General & Revenue Secretariat, most respectfully sheweth

1 That the petitioner's husband died on 27th December, 1910, of phthisis, leaving behind him an aged mother the petitioner and four children, (2 boys aged 12 and 7 respectively and 2 unmarried girls 11 and 6 respectively)

2. That the deceased has not insured his life in the Mysore State Life Insurance the only property the deceased has left is a house in Basvangudi which at present ~~exx~~ fetches a rent of Rs 15/- a month and an Insurance in a private Company which is, however, encumbered, and that this income is wholly inadequate for the maintenance of the petitioner and the four children together with the education of the boys and the marriage of the two girls

3 That the funeral expenses incurred by the family were met with great difficulty and it the help of friends and well-petitioner's pitiable condition is well-known to Messers K S Chandrasekara Iyer, H V Nanjunayya, C S Balasuniram Iyer, and other officers of the State under whom the deceased was long serving

4 That the deceased has served the Mysore Government, fait fully and honestly in various capacities for a period of xx about 30 years during which on occasions he had to do very arduous work such as arranging for the tour of His His ness the Maharaiah, in Burma, arranging for camps in the last Delhi Durbar, and being in charge of the arrangements, connected with the reception and entertainment of the members of the Representative Assembly etc, during the Dasara Seasons

That just before his death, the deceased had put in an application to Government for a Gratuity

That in consideration of the long and faithful services rendered to Government by the deceased and in consideration of almost the destitute condition in which the petitioner and her children now find themselves, the Government of His Highness the Maharaiah may be graciously pleased to award scholarships to the two sons of the Deceased for their education till they reach their age of majority

For which act of Kindness and Grace the petitioner will as in duty bound ever ever pray

Yours sincerely
